St John's Greenhill, Harrow, 12:30pm: Harrow Summer Music Festival

"Summer is the time for Love"

Nina Kopparhed, soprano, and Neil Crossland, piano

Love: Arrival

Frank Bridge/Mary E. Coleridge:

Love went a-riding

Love: welcoming

Henry Purcell/Henry Heveningham, Colonel

If music be the food of Love, version 3

Love, eternal:

Frank Bridge/Mary E. Coleridge:

Thy hand in Mine

Neil Crossland/Elizabeth Barrett Browning

How do I love thee?

G.F. Handel: Acis and Galatea

Role: Galatea

Heart, the seat of soft delight

Unwanted love (it's complicated!):

G.F. Handel: Orlando

Role: Angelica

Non potrà dirmi ingrata

Growing old/beauty is not just skin deep

Franz Schubert/attr. Ludwig Széchenyi von Sávári-Felső-Vidék, Graf

Die abgeblühte Linde, Op 7 No.1

Finale: being constantly pestered by Mr Wrong, Mrs Waters is adamant that she is certainly not looking for a new man. She reflects on no longer being in the spring of youth, but being comfortable in her life as the owner of the country pub "the Beehive". Whilst finding an ingenious way out of a nasty trick being played on her by Mr Wrong, she meets Mr Very Interesting, and decides that summer may be the time for love after all.

Dame Ethel Smyth: The Boatswain's Mate:

Role: Mrs Waters

Suppose you mean to do a given thing

I suppose... What if I were young again

A Wrinkle!... summer is the time for love

Please put all mobile phones on silent during the recital
